Tropicana to unveil its resort-themed collection

Tropicana Corp Bhd on Dec 5 will unveil its latest product – Tropicana Journey Collection – which will feature resort-themed developments.

Starting off the collection are two projects – Tropicana Grandhill in Genting Highlands and Tropicana Cenang on the island of Langkawi.

Tropicana Grandhill will cover 112 freehold acres with an estimated gross development value of RM20 billion.

From the highlands to the seaside, Tropicana Cenang will provide serviced suites, retail facilities, a hotel and, possibly, a branded residence. READ MORE

The Andaman Langkawi is expected to reopen in the second half of 2023

The Andaman, a five-star resort in Langkawi that burned down earlier this year, will most likely reopen in the second half of 2023.

According to Landmarks Bhd, the resort's reconstruction and restoration will begin in the first quarter of 2022 and will take up to 30 months.

Landmarks is collaborating with super-luxury hotel designer Jean-Michel Gathy, the principal of Denniston, who is responsible for some of the world's most iconic hotels, to rebuild the property. READ MORE

Hilton Inks New Luxury Developments For China And Japan

Hilton has secured two new landmark signings in Asia Pacific; the first Waldorf Astoria hotel in Osaka, Japan; and Conrad hotel in Chongqing, China.

The two management agreements add two brand-leading properties to the company's portfolio of luxury hotels in the region. When they open, the hotels will join the ranks of 30 operating hotels under the company's group of luxury brands: Waldorf Astoria Hotels & Resorts, Conrad Hotels & Resorts and LXR Hotels & Resorts.
